Base Pay

Approach

How are base pay decisions made?

Talent leads receive a base pay increase budget, and then decide on base pay increases considering an individual's skills, impact and their position in the base pay range. Budgets for base pay increases are determined in each country, taking into account local business, economic, and talent market context.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Base Pay:

Providing our people with recognition and rewards that are commensurate with individual performance and prevailing market conditions is a priority for the Company leadership. In line with Performance Achievement, our aim is to create a more flexible and personalized reward structure that leverages compensation, equity, benefits, a great working environment, training and on the job professional growth.

Your annual fixed compensation will include allowances and statutory benefits and will be structured in accordance with the Company's compensation guidelines; and will be subject to applicable taxes.

You will be eligible to participate in the FY26 Individual Performance Bonus (IPB) Programme. Your indicative pay-out can range from 0% to 21% of the prorated fixed pay in the FY26, subject to the overall terms and conditions of the IPB, including but not limited to your individual performance achievements and the Company's performance. The Company may, at any time and in its sole and absolute discretion, amend, suspend, withdraw vary and/or modify any of the terms and conditions of the IPB programme guidelines. The IPB will be paid out subject to you being on the rolls of the Company on the date of disbursement of these payouts and will be prorated based on your tenure in Accenture India and considering the period of leave without pay during the said fiscal year.
